Earlier today a Warren County grand jury returned an indictment against Marcus Isreal for his alleged conduct that resulted in the death of Sergeant Brian Dulle of the Warren County Sheriff's Office.

The indictment includes the following charges: Murder (special); Involuntary Manslaughter (F1); two counts of Felonious Assault (F1); Aggravated Vehicular Homicide (F2); Failure to Comply (F3); two counts of Weapons under Disability (F3); and Receiving Stolen Motor Vehicle (F4). The indictment also includes a gun specification to the charges. The punishment for the murder charge is 15 years to life in prison.

Isreal remains in jail in lieu of $1 million bond. The date and time of Isreal's arraignment will be scheduled by the Warren County Court of Common Pleas.
