The Warren County Prosecutor's Office recently released its 2014 Annual Report. The 12-page report recounts events from 2013, including the office's community involvement and significant cases, as well as a synopsis of the work performed by each division in the office.

2013 continued to be eventful in the Warren County Prosecutor's Office. In total, we were responsible for more than 22,462 court cases, including 925 felonies, over 2,800 juvenile cases, 6,737 adult misdemeanors, and over 12,000 child support cases. In addition, we provided legal counsel to 30 county agencies, eight townships, and five public libraries.

The Prosecutor's Office participated in several community events, including the 3rd Annual Caesar's Creek Polar Plunge to benefit Special Olympics Ohio, the 2013 Daylight Prom to benefit special needs students from several Warren County high schools, National Crime Victims' Rights Week, presentation of the 2013 Errol D. Butt Award, National Night Out, and the Blue Ribbon Gala for the Child Advocacy Center of Warren County.

Highlighting its fiscal responsibility, our office returned over 5.9% of the Prosecutor's Office 2013 appropriated budget back to the county general fund. As 2014 begins, the Prosecutor's Office is committed to further improving efficiency while maintaining the highest level of service to the public.

More detailed information is contained in the 2014 Annual Report which is attached to this release. The report is also available on the Warren County Prosecutor's website at www.warrencountyprosecutor.com.
