Robert White, 40, of Franklin, Ohio, was found guilty today by a Warren County jury of one count of murder and one count of felonious assault.

On August 27, 2017, White stabbed Terry Hall at a residence in Franklin. White had been staying at the residence with a female. Hall was called to the home by the female to get White to leave. White and Hall began to argue when White grabbed a kitchen knife and began stabbing Hall. Hall was stabbed at least 10 times by White and was pronounced dead at the scene.

Warren County Common Pleas Court Judge Timothy N. Tepe sentenced White to the statutorily-mandated sentence of life in prison, with parole eligibility after 15 years.

Warren County Prosecutor David P. Fornshell commended Officer Scott Brown, Det. Jeff Stewart, Det. Steve Figliola, Sgt. Troy Wolf, Officer Amanda Myers, Officer Kyle O'Neil, all of the Franklin Police Department, Assistant Prosecutors Derek Faulkner and Karl Harris, Director of Victim Witness Services Jessi Flint, and Legal Assistant Brenda Berry for their work on the case.
